MARRIAGE: Christian marriage is a sacred and serious commitment. Couples contemplating marriage should notify a parish priest at least nine months before the date on which they intend to marry. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Knowing the Catholic faith and tradition is essential if faith and tradition are to continue to be nourishing facets of our lives. Religious formation is valuable for both youth and adults. Classes are conducted from September to May following the 9:00AM Mass on Sunday. PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

"TO KNOW, LOVE AND SERVE THE LORD
AND ONE ANOTHER IN IMITATION OF MARY"

*Approved by both Parish Pastoral Councils
January 2007*

FROM THE DEACON'S BENCH:

My Brothers and Sisters,

On June 17th, I was invited – along with any fellow parishioners who wished to attend – our second ecumenical prayer meeting in the Lake Winola area. This took place at the Bethel Church at the How Kola campground. It was a wonderful way to pray together for Christian unity.

We all know that our day should always begin and end with prayer. Each day that we live is a gift. This gift comes from God and we should be humble enough to take time to offer up our gratitude to him for each day. When we pray, it should come from the heart and it should reflect our wonder at this gift given so freely out of his love for us.

I am writing this letter with a heavy heart. We all were shocked with the senseless taking of over 50 innocent lives in Orlando, Florida last Sunday, and each one of us in our own way stopped to pray for the families and their loved ones whose lives were taken so suddenly. That's why we should offer up our prayers in union with their families.

For me, the greatest prayer I know is the first one I learned many years ago and is the one Jesus himself gave us, the "Our Father". It is such a simple and easy prayer to say but is filled with such wisdom. Can you imagine what the disciples thought when Jesus told them to call the Almighty One "Our Father"? No one at that time would have dared to even think of calling God "Father"! And yet that is what the Son tells us God wishes to be called, not just by the powerful, the holy, the important people but also the sinners in our world. So we offer our prayers for all those who suffer because of hatred or misunderstanding and we do this because God says to all of us that he is Our Father.

We as a nation set aside a special day to honor all fathers – both good fathers and not so good fathers – fathers who are and fathers to be, fathers-in-law and those who are outlaws. Maybe this Father's Day we can say a special prayer for those we love and for those who have lost someone they love.

May God Bless,

Deacon Ray

"BASKETS GALORE" – KIWANIS WYOMING COUNTY FAIR:

Hi, I'm Maryann Barni. My daughter Angela and I will be chairing the "Baskets Galore" booth again this year. It's not too early to start putting things together. We ask that your basket be valued at a minimum of $50.00. If you can wrap your basket, that would be greatly appreciated. It gets wrapped in clear plastic. If you're not good at wrapping, no problem – we've got it.

We know not everybody can get to the Fair so we would like to do a preview in the hall again this year. We feel that not only will it give us a chance to show off the baskets; it will give you a chance to buy tickets for the basket you like.

With summer on the way, when you're out and about keep our baskets in mind.... maybe pick up a few things here and there. When you get together with friends, maybe bring up the idea of teaming up to do a basket.

We'll keep updates coming during the summer. Please feel free to call us at 570-687-3070 or 570-687-3072.

Pilgrimage Opportunity for High School Youth

High school youth groups from our Diocese have the unique opportunity to participate in a World Youth Day pilgrimage in nearby Lancaster.

The Diocese of Harrisburg is offering "World Youth Day - Stateside!" on July 30-31. Taking place at Lancaster Catholic High School and Clipper Magazine Stadium in Lancaster, this overnight, outdoor pilgrimage experience will mirror the events taking place at World Youth Day in Krakow, Poland.

WYD Stateside will correspond with the vigil and concluding Eucharistic celebration presided over by Pope Francis in Krakow. In Lancaster, pilgrims will be connected to those in Poland through prayer, fellowship, Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, music and celebration to fully experience the spirit of World Youth Day.

The program will be headlined by emcee Jackie Francois Angel, a traveling speaker, singer/songwriter, and worship leader from Orange County, Calif. Special guests will include Ceili Rain, a pop-rock band with Celtic flavor and uplifting messages, and local Christian rock and worship musician Sean Patrick Malloy.

Bishop Edward Malesic of the Diocese of Greensburg - a native priest of the Diocese of Harrisburg - will celebrate the closing Mass at Clipper Magazine Stadium on Sunday at 2 p.m.

Plans are currently underway to share Pope Francis' World Youth Day message from Krakow to the pilgrims in Lancaster.

High school youth must register with a youth group for the stateside event. Young adults and families can register independent of a youth group. Registration is $175 per person.

Two-day tickets include access to all of the weekend's events, four meal vouchers (two lunches, one breakfast and one dinner), and a pilgrim pack with a souvenir bottle, a vigil candle, prayer resources and a Rosary.

Sunday-only tickets include admission to the events at Clipper Magazine Stadium, a meal voucher for lunch, a pilgrim pack and souvenir bottle, and prayer resources.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF FATHER'S DAY

By Andrew Hollandbeck

Father's Day, celebrated in the United States on the third Sunday of June, got a jump start from the formation of Mother's Day. Credit for beginning Father's Day celebrations is given to Sonora Smart Dodd from Spokane, Washington.

At the turn of the century, Mother's Day observances were growing across the United States. The federal government had yet to recognize the holiday, but many states had adopted the third Sunday in May as a special celebration day honoring mothers. It was during a Mother's Day church service on June 20, 1909, that Sonora Smart Dodd was struck with the idea of creating a special holiday to honor fathers, too.

When Sonora was 16, her mother died while giving birth to her sixth child, the last of five sons. Back then, like today, single parenthood was no easy task. By Sonoma's account, though, Mr. Smart did a wonderful job. Because of this love and esteem, Sonoma Smart Dodd believed that her father deserved a special time of honor just like that given to mothers on Mother's Day.

In 1909, Sonoma Smart Dodd approached the Spokane YMCA and the Spokane Ministerial Alliance and suggested that her father's birthday — June 5 — become a celebration day for Father's Day. Because they wanted more time to prepare, the Ministerial Alliance chose June 19 instead.

The first Father's Day was thus observed in the State of Washington on June 19, 1910. The idea of officially celebrating fatherhood spread quickly across the United States, as more and more states adopted the holiday. In 1924, President Calvin Coolidge recognized Father's Day as the third Sunday in June of that year and encouraged states to do the same. Congress officially recognized Father's Day in 1956 with the passage of a joint resolution.

Ten years later, in 1966, President Lyndon Johnson issued a proclamation calling for the third Sunday in June to be recognized as Father's Day. In 1972, President Richard Nixon permanently established the observance of the third Sunday in June as Father's Day in the United States.

Sonora Smart Dodd lived to see her idea come to fruition. She died in 1978 at the ripe old age of 96.

Words of Life

"Clinical labels may describe some aspects of an individual's 'functioning,' but they don't tell the whole story. ... It's like looking at a stained-glass window... From the inside...with the sun shining through it, the effect can be brilliant. From inside our family, love illuminates our life with Charlie.* What may seem dreary to others, perhaps even unbearable, is actually filled with beauty and color." "A Perfect Gift"
