FROM THE DEACON'S BENCH:

My Brothers and Sisters,

Promising to give up something for Lent is easy but actually doing it or staying with it is hard -- really hard. And sometimes it's really not our fault. I love peanut butter, so it is something I often give up. Before Lent, if I felt that I wanted a peanut butter sandwich, I had to practically take everything out of the cabinets to find it. It's funny, because when I give it up for Lent, every -- and I mean every -- cabinet I open, there's a jar of peanut butter sitting in easy reach. It's around every corner and behind every door.

Or, if you try to give up donuts, every function or every house you go, to someone says, "Here, have one." And because you don't want to offend anyone, you give in. Well, if you're being honest, it wasn't really that hard to take not one but two! All is not lost. Take heart because we all know that, as soon as Lent is over, no one will offer donuts and every jar of peanut butter will vanish. At least until next Lenten season.

I was discussing this problem with my wife, who informed me that it's not just Lent but really every day of the year that I seem to have a problem finding most things that I'm looking for (that's not nice!). So, like any other husband, I changed the subject and suggested that we should try something else, to which my wife said that, since watching the news seems to drive me crazy, I should give it up for Lent. Now that is a great idea. I know my blood pressure would be lower -- a lot lower -- so I said, "You're on; that's what I am going to do for the rest of Lent." I gave up listening to the radio 13 years ago and have not gone back to it since, so I think I'll pull this off too!!

Well, I pray that your Lent is going a lot easier than mine, but if it's not, don't despair. There is still plenty of time left to get it right. Just stay out of the cabinets and don't leave the house until Lent is over!

May God Bless You,

Deacon Ray

Regulations for Lent 2018

All faithful of the Diocese of Scranton are reminded of Diocesan Statute No. 41, which addresses the penitential aspect of Lent: "The season of Lent is penitential in nature and during Lent penance should be not only internal and individual, but also external and social (Sacrosanctum Concilium, No. 5, 109). Pastors are obliged to avoid scheduling activities in the parishes which in any way could possibly detract from the external and social penance required by Lent."

Ash Wednesday, February 14th, marks the beginning of Lent. The following fast and abstinence regulations are observed:

+ Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, March 30th, are days of fast and abstinence.

+ Fridays during Lent are days of abstinence.

+ All Catholics who have reached their 14th birthday are to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and on all Fridays during Lent.

+ All Catholics over 18 years of age to the beginning of their 60th year are bound to the obligation of fasting. Those bound by this rule may take only one full meal and two smaller meals unless dispensed or excused.

Lenten Reminders

Lent is a time for sacrifice and for spiritual renewal as we reflect upon our baptism and the call given to each of us to walk as disciples of the Lord.

As faithful followers of Jesus, we are traditionally encouraged to honor the sacred season of Lent by embracing the three pillars of Lenten observance:

+ Almsgiving - generously giving to those in need

+ Fasting - practicing self-discipline and self-denial

+ Prayer - reading, hearing and reflecting on the Word of God

Lent is also a penitential season. It is a time to seek forgiveness, to look inward, and to admit our shortcomings and failures. It is a time to regroup and to prepare.

How can you spend your time during Lent?

+ By "giving up" things you hunger after, such as sweets or alcohol; or activities you desire, such as vacations, concerts or movies.

+ By "doing" things to help others, such as offering an extra donation to the poor or helping those in need by providing food or clothing.

+ By "adding" to our normal routine, such as going to daily Mass, praying the Stations of the Cross and going to confession.

DIOCESAN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY MASS: His Excellency, the Most Rev. Joseph C. Bambera, D.D., J.C.L., Bishop of Scranton and the Office for Parish Life wish to invite couples celebrating their 25th or 50th wedding anniversary in 2018 to a Diocesan Wedding Anniversary Mass on Sunday, June 10th. The event includes a 2:30PM Mass at St. Peter's Cathedral followed by a reception. Requests for an invitation, with a mailing address, should be made through your Pastor before March 12th.

ALTUS FOR WOMEN'S SPRING PROGRAM
STARTS APRIL 18TH

How do you walk with loved ones during difficult times? Do you have a hard time releasing family members to God's care? Join Altus for Women as we meet in small groups all over the Diocese, reading Mary's Way by Judy Klein. With her son's addiction to drugs and her daughter's anxiety, Klein discovered she couldn't handle life not measuring up to her expectations. Through her heart-warming story, Klein shows us how to be powerful intercessors for ourselves, our children, and those we love. You'll be filled with hope as you learn to turn to Mary, entrusting those you love to God.

Interested in starting an Altus Group in your parish?

We can help! We're hoping to add many new Groups throughout the Diocese. We'd love your parish be one of them! Contact tracy@altusforwomen.com if you'd like to form a Group. Groups meet for 6 sessions from April 18th to May 23rd, with a Tea Party finale on May 23rd at the Diocesan Pastoral Center in Scranton. Registration fee is $20.00 (plus the cost of the book). For more information, go to www.altusforwomen.com. Altus for Women is a Catholic women's ministry in partnership with the Office for Parish Life in the Diocese of Scranton.

PIEROGI-MAKING INCLEMENT WEATHER CANCELLATION PROCEDURE

Each year, we set a goal to complete our Pierogi quota prior to Easter and usually encounter some weather event(s) along the way making it a challenge to attain. The following is a plan to address this and keep us on track:

In the event that the Tunkhannock School District is on a 2 hour delay OR total cancellation, we will NOT make pierogies on that Monday. We will meet on the WEDNESDAY of that same week at the normal times to make pierogies and then on THURSDAY to package them at 1pm.

Thank you for your understanding and continued support of this very important fundraiser for our Parish. Possibly some new people will be able to join in the fun during our schedule change. Volunteers are always welcome!
The Pierogi Brigade
