WELCOME: We warmly welcome all to join us in worship of our God. If you are new to our parish community, please be sure to tell Fr. Pat that you will be joining our parish community. Contact the parish office if you have any questions. Visitor envelopes are available at all entrances.

MARRIAGE: Christian marriage is a sacred and serious commitment. Couples contemplating marriage should notify a parish priest at least nine months before the date on which they intend to marry. This should be done before any other arrangements are made so that a couple may be suitably served by the parish and diocese. All couples are required to take part in a Pre-Cana program or Engaged Encounter Weekend. Sunday Weddings are not permitted.

RCIA: The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is a community journey that leads to transformation of mind and spirit. The program runs from September through Pentecost with reception of the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. Information is available at the parish office.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Knowing the Catholic faith and tradition is essential if faith and tradition are to continue to be nourishing facets of our lives. Religious formation is valuable for both youth and adults. Classes are conducted from September to May following the 9:00AM Mass on Sunday. Information on religious education programs for youth of all ages and educational opportunities for adults are available at the parish office.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

"TO KNOW, LOVE AND SERVE THE LORD
AND ONE ANOTHER IN IMITATION OF MARY"

*Approved by both Parish Pastoral Councils
January 2007*

FROM THE DEACON'S BENCH:

Brothers and Sisters,

Out in the middle of the Equator is a place that was once dreaded by ancient mariners called the Doldrums. The Doldrums was windless and back then, everybody sailed to get around – and sails require wind – so everyone would get stuck until a current got them started again. The calendar is telling us it's January, a new year and new beginning. The start. But don't be fooled by what you see; we are in the Doldrums. From now until Easter, it will feel like the air was sucked right out of our lungs.

Bleak, right? Let me explain. From the beginning of November until the end of December, time moved like a strong wind was at its back. We were all being carried on the current of the holidays. We prepped for Thanksgiving and immediately began decorating and celebrating Christmas. It was nonstop with barely time to waste. But now, with nothing to do or prepare for, time will stretch and each month will feel like two to me.

I suppose I need to stop talking like this. My son Jayme, who lives in Maryland, asked me why I depress everyone with these thoughts. But he is in southern Maryland. It is much warmer there. I have more than a strong dislike of winter weather. I thrive in heat and humidity and become morose the more layers I have to bundle up in. I know a lot of people like this time of year for the skiing and snow tubing and school delays, but I just call them all crazy.

And if I didn't have enough against January with the weather, I also dislike all the promises we make and never intend to keep. We are lying to ourselves, much like I do when I tell my family I will try and be more positive as the snow falls. That will never happen. I'll also never give broccoli a real chance! I don't want you to think I won't enjoy myself at all the next few months. My oldest son, Ray, just celebrating a birthday, which I almost remembered without my wife telling me... almost. February brings my granddaughter Irene's birthday as well as Groundhog Day, which is a fun way of telling us winter is still around us but spring is on its way. Also, the Easter Candy Sale is starting up and my daughter assures me my free time will no longer be free or mine. So I guess there are some rays of light ahead, I just need help seeing them.

And thank you to everyone for the Christmas cards and gifts; they are all appreciated very much.

May God Bless You,

Grumpy Deacon Ray

Campaign for Human Development... January 27-28

Catholic Campaign for Human Development Aims to Overcome Poverty

For over 43 million Americans, there is a thin line: between eviction and home, between hunger and health, between unemployment and work, between anxiety and stability. This line is the Poverty Line. For a family of four, that line is less than $25,000 a year.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is dedicated to breaking the cycle of poverty by funding community programs that encourage independence.

The annual national collection for the CCHD will be taken up in parishes in the Diocese of Scranton on the weekend of January 27-28. The theme, "Working on the Margins," focuses our attention on the poor and vulnerable who can often be overlooked.

This campaign is the primary source of funding for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' anti-poverty grants and education programs aimed at fostering a culture of life and hope in communities across the nation.

The collection supports the work of groups that empower low-income people to participate in decisions that affect their lives and break the cycle of poverty.

Twenty-five percent of funds collected through the Catholic Campaign for Human Development remain in each diocese to support local human development projects.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development continues to operate within the 2010 guidelines established by their governing bishops in The Review and Renewal of CCHD. This ensures that the recipients of these grants are providing programs and services which are in keeping with Catholic social and moral teaching.

Additional resources to learn about poverty in the United States can be found at www.povertyusa.org.

MISSING A RING? A unique mother's ring was found among the baby bottles that were donated in support of the Pro-Life Center. If it's yours, please contact the Parish Office (570-677-7634) and describe the ring. It may be picked up at the Parish Office during working hours.

REVELATION: If you are interested in learning more about the last book of the Bible, Revelation, please come and join the Sunday evening Bible Study group. It's never too late to join us. We meet in Father Nallin Hall at 7:00PM. All you need to bring is a Bible. If you have any questions, call Cindy at 570 836-4744.

IT'S TIME TO MAKE THE PIEROGIES: We will start making pierogies this Monday, January 15th and conclude on Monday, March 19th. Volunteers are needed; come join us on Mondays starting at 8:00AM in Fr. Nallin Hall. It's great comradery and a complementary lunch is served. Call the Parish Office (570-836-3275) if you have any questions.

ANNUAL RESPECT LIFE PRAYER BREAKFAST: The Scranton Chapter of Pennsylvanians for Human Life will sponsor its Annual Respect Life Prayer Breakfast on Saturday, January 27th at 9:00AM at Fiorelli's Catering, 1501 Main Street Peckville. The principal speaker will be Ryan Bomberger. Along with his wife Bethany, he founded the Radiance Foundation which addresses a myriad of social issues and works to illuminate the truth about human dignity in the context of God-given purpose. Ryan has a rather unique perspective of the innate nature of Purpose. Conceived in rape—but adopted in love—Ryan's life is an example of beautiful possibility. His life defies the myth of the "unwanted" child as he was adopted, loved, and has flourished.

Ryan is an international public speaker, writer, fearless journalist, activist, and author of the book, Not Equal: Civil Rights Gone Wrong. Working in conjunction with noted national human rights leaders like Dr. Alveda King (niece of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.), Ryan is involved in national efforts to expose and defund Planned Parenthood by illuminating this human rights injustice. From congressional briefings on Capitol Hill to advocating for adoption to mentoring and educating young people, Ryan's story and message inspires many to embrace their intrinsic value and the incredible possibility with which we are all created.

Reservations are $21.00 for Adults, $10.00 for Children 6-12; no charge for Children 5 & under. Group reservations also welcome. Deadline for reservations is January 22nd. Please send reservations in advance – with check payable to Pennsylvanians for Human Life – to: Joseph Alinoski 9B Rachel Drive Archbald Pa 18403. Phone for additional information (570-876-4087).

DIGITAL DISCIPLES MINISTRY

Like our Facebook Page

When you think about it, being a Digital Disciple is all about four things:

Information – learning what you need to know about our parishes

Education - learning about our Catholic faith and how we are implementing that faith here in our parishes

Communication - making sure we all know what's going on

Evangelization – spreading our faith to others

If you are on Facebook, THE biggest way you can help INFORM, EDUCATE, COMMUNICATE, and EVANGELIZE is by LIKING our Facebook page, @nativitystmary, and by LIKING and SHARING our Facebook posts. When you like our page, you affirm that you want to know about your faith and how we are practicing it at Nativity and St Mary. By liking and sharing our posts, you affirm that you want others to know about our faith as well.

We currently have about 150 "likes" for our page. Realistically, we should have many more likes for two parishes of our size. We have set a goal of doubling the number of likes for our page. Here's how you can help:

- If you are on Facebook and have not yet liked our page, by all means do so.
- If you have already liked our page, start liking and sharing our posts to your friends, and encourage them to like the page as well.
- If you are not yet on Facebook, create a Facebook profile and like our page. If you need help, ask a friend or family member to help you.
- If you are a "computer person", offer to help a friend or family member create a Facebook profile.

Liking our Facebook page is one way of being an active parishioner. Support your parish by helping us reach our goal.

PLEASE NOTE: We have transitioned the email addresses for our parishes to take advantage of the options available through our website. While we still receive emails through the frontier.com email addresses, we are also utilizing the following website email addresses for our outgoing communications and receiving emails through them as well. Please make note of the following addresses in your email program's Address Book:

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Send workers into your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and your people are strengthened by the sacraments. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sesquicentennial Celebration Begins!

Our year-long celebration of the 150th Anniversary of the founding of the Diocese was launched with a prayerful and joyful Opening Mass on the First Sunday of Advent in the Cathedral of Saint Peter. We were honored that Cardinal Justin Rigali, Archbishop Emeritus of Philadelphia and former Apostolic Administrator of the Diocese of Scranton, joined us for this special liturgy.

Coverage of the Mass was featured in the December 21, 2017 edition of The Catholic Light, plus the next installment in our historical retrospectives, this one focusing on "Parishes as Communities of Faith." A report on the Opening Mass was also featured in the December edition of "Our Faith, Our Diocese" on CTV: Catholic Television. The first in a series of Anniversary video vignettes produced by WVIA-TV debuted on the show. You can also view the program at the diocesan website: <http://www.dioceseofscranton.org/ourfaith-our-diocese-dec.../>

"I Have A Dream"

Excerpted from the speech delivered on the steps at the Lincoln Memorial in Washington D.C. on August 28, 1963.

Source: Martin Luther King, Jr.: The Peaceful Warrior, Pocket Books, NY 1968

I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal." I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at a table of brotherhood. I have a dream that one day even the state of Mississippi, a desert state, sweltering with the heat of injustice and oppression, will be transformed into an oasis of freedom and justice. I have a dream that my four children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character. I have a dream today.

I have a dream that one day the state of Alabama, whose governor's lips are presently dripping with the words of interposition and nullification, will be transformed into a situation where little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls and walk together as sisters and brothers. I have a dream today. I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, every hill and mountain shall be made low, the rough places will be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight, and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together. This is our hope. This is the faith with which I return to the South. With this faith we will be able to hew out of the mountain of despair a stone of hope. With this faith we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood. With this faith we will be able to work together, to pray together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together, knowing that we will be free one day.

This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to sing with a new meaning, "My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing. Land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrim's pride, from every mountainside, let freedom ring." And if America is to be a great nation, this must become true. So let freedom ring from the prodigious hilltops of New Hampshire. Let freedom ring from the mighty mountains of New York. Let freedom ring from the heightening Alleghenies of Pennsylvania! Let freedom ring from the snowcapped Rockies of Colorado! Let freedom ring from the curvaceous peaks of California! But not only that; let freedom ring from Stone Mountain of Georgia! Let freedom ring from Lookout Mountain of Tennessee! Let freedom ring from every hill and every molehill of Mississippi. From every mountainside, let freedom ring.

When we let freedom ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual, "Free at last! free at last! thank God Almighty, we are free at last!"

Parish Sponsor Couple Program for Marriage Preparation Available January 2018!

Pairing engaged couples with sponsor couples is an effective way to prepare engaged couples for marriage, because it gives them personal attention, builds a bridge into your parish community and gives them mentors to rely on through the early years of marriage. A parish sponsor couple program also helps the married couple strengthen their own marriage. The Office for Parish Life will offer a program for parish use starting in January 2018. In four sessions, couples will explore and discuss the same topics currently covered in the popular Diocesan PreCana Days of Reflection, with video content featuring John Regula and Bernadette Rudolph. Contact the Office for Parish Life to discuss starting this in your parish.

What is the meaning of "Ordinary Time"?

Ordinary Time refers to two periods of time in the Christian liturgical year that are found in the calendar of the ordinary form of the Roman Rite of the Catholic Church, as well as some other churches of Western Christianity, including those that use the Revised Common Lectionary, the Anglican communion, Methodist churches, Lutheran churches, Old Catholic churches and Reformed churches. In Latin, the name of this time is Tempus per annum translated as time during the year.

Ordinary Time comprises two periods: the first period begins on Epiphany Day (in the Anglican Communion and Methodist churches) or the day after the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord (in the Catholic Church) and ends on the day before Ash Wednesday; the second period begins on the Monday after Pentecost, the conclusion of the Easter season, and continues until the Saturday before the First Sunday of Advent. In some traditions, the first period is celebrated as Epiphanytide, and the latter of these periods is observed as Trinitytide. Both of these periods of time, combined, are the longest time in the liturgical year.

The weeks of Ordinary Time are numbered. Several Sundays bear the name of feasts or solemnities celebrated on those days, including Trinity Sunday and the Feast of Christ the King.

The liturgical color normally assigned to Ordinary Time is green.

Father of goodness and love, hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need. Amid mental and physical suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence.
